

Tradition Of Indian Enmity Can Be Broken Says Observer

(Editor's note: Tomorrow, DeWitt MacKenzie, war analyst of The Gettysburg Times, just returned from India, will discuss the Moslem claim to the establishment of completely independent Moslem states in India. The article will introduce one of the most colorful figures in Indian political life, Mohammed Ali Jinnah, the famous lawyer of the Moslem league.)

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

If you stood an Indian Moslem and a Hindu side by side you would see little difference in their appearance, and if you followed each of them through his day's routine you would find their pursuits much the same, barring religious observances.

Yet tradition has it that these two are born to eternal enmity because they worship different gods. Tradition says that this means there can be no political unity in India and no solution of the present crisis on a national basis.

Challenges Tradition

Well that tradition has a lot to substantiate it, including bloodshed, and the student of the situation who overlooked this would indeed be shortsighted.

Still, I challenge tradition. And to my mind the question of whether Moslems and Hindus can get along together is far from being the same now as it was a generation ago when I first visited India.

Orthodoxy in the Moslem and Hindu religions has become much more tolerant. India's sons of today are displaying a liberality which their fathers didn't possess.

The consensus among Indians of all classes as I found it was that, despite the undoubted differences, there is no reason why these two religions should not get along together.

Live in Peace

The other day I visited a little Hindu village in northern India. In the midst of 113 Hindu families I discovered two families of Moslems, living in peace with their traditional enemies. These Moslems were carpenters, and the men were building wheels for ox carts in the common court-yard of their little mud-huts.

A Brahmin priest, who according to orthodoxy is defiled if even the shadow of an untouchable falls across him, was sitting on a log and chatting with them. I don't suppose for a moment that he would have broken bread with the Moslems, but when I entered the scene they were laughing over some joke he had made, and I strongly suspected that he had been telling them the story of the traveling salesman.

I found many proofs in my travels about India that Hindus and Moslems could live and work together, but the most impressive was in the Hindu state of Gwalior, one of the most powerful of the states ruled by the princes.

Work in Amity

When I was in India 27 years ago I was the guest of the late Maharajah Scindia in his palace for ten days—an Arabian-Nights adventure. His highness was a delightful host and left nothing undone to make my visit pleasant, even offering to stage a tiger hunt on elephants. He was a broadminded man—a fact which made even more striking the one characteristic which seemed odd and contradictory: He wouldn't eat food with an unbeliever, that is, one who wasn't a follower of the Hindu religion.

Now that great and good prince has gone to his fathers, and his young son rules in his stead. However, it was but natural that I should want to see Gwalior again on this trip, and I was repaid with one of the great thrills of my journey. I found that in this Hindu state all religions are living and working together in amity, and this striking development had been fostered by the late maharajah who at one time didn't feel that it was right to eat with an unbeliever.

The state officially celebrates the main festival of both Moslems and Hindus. At Christmas time there is a salute of twenty-one guns as a mark of respect for the Christian religion. There have been no communal riots for years.

Religions Mix Well

India's most famous boys' school is in Gwalior. It occupies, perhaps, the choicest position in all the capital—atop the large plateau which arises from the heart of the city and which is the site of the ancient fort that defended the throne of the ancient rulers. This school takes boys of all religions. And, amazing to relate, not even untouchables are barred.

At the moment there are Christians, Hindus, Moslems and Jains in attendance. They live together and eat together. None of them is permitted to practice orthodox religion among his fellows.

At first this raised some opposition among parents, but that has disappeared. The youngsters—most of whom are scions of aristocracy or wealth—have undergone a liberalization and leveling off which does not even draw the line at the pariah of India—the untouchable. That (Please Turn to Page 5)

MERCY DRIVE OF RED CROSS OPENS TODAY

"The American Red Cross begins today the greatest single crusade of mercy in all history."

Thus spoke President Roosevelt yesterday in proclaiming the month of March Red Cross Month and asking Americans to contribute at least $125,000,000 "to make sure that every American boy on every fighting front has everything he needs which the Red Cross can supply."

Adams county is asked to raise $18,700.

Joining in the broadcast appeal from north Africa, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said:

"I cannot possibly describe to you the extent to which all of us, particularly those magnificent soldiers who fill the American units in north Africa, depend upon the American Red Cross."

Local Appeal

In Gettysburg, Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, chairman of the Adams county chapter, issued the following appeal:

"Experts in charge of the recent blood donation sponsored by the American Red Cross in Adams county declared that the setting provided by Radford Lippy and his committee was unsurpassed for convenience. These experts made an equally gratifying statement; they said that the percentage of hemoglobin in the blood of Adams county donors was extremely high. Hemoglobin is a vital and important constituent of the red corpuscles which give warmth and energy to our hearts and our bodies."

Our Own Quota

"The analysis did not surprise those who for years have asked our people for aid for the afflicted. It is especially encouraging to hear at this time when the Red Cross is asking our county for $18,700 for the National War Relief Fund."

"This allotment has not been assigned without careful consideration. It is based on our population, on the ease or difficulty with which they may be reached, on what we have been able to contribute in the past and on our certain expenses for the coming year, in our office and workrooms. Telephone and telegraph charges have already increased four hundred per cent over those of last year."

"We Are the Red Cross"

"The Red Cross is indeed the Greatest Mother in the world. You have seen her pictured hand stretched out on a thousand posters. You have seen her arms encircling children stunted by poverty or terrified by war. Perhaps you have already called upon her to reach your son, your husband or your sweetheart in a hospital or prison camp. The Red Cross is the only civilian organization which goes where the Army goes. It goes even beyond where the Army goes."

BOND QUOTA FOR MARCH $96,884

Adams county's war bond quota for the month of March is $96,884, the same as it was for February, the Federal Reserve District informed Edmund W. Thomas, Adams county chairman. The quota applies to Series "E" bonds only.

Total sales of bonds in Adams county during February have not been reported as yet, Mr. Thomas said. This is due, it was explained, to the rush of work in the Federal Reserve District offices in Philadelphia. Sales for the third quarter of last month have not been tabulated, nor have the sales for the final week. These figures are expected to be received here within a few days.

Because of the overlapping of time from the close of one month to the opening of the next month's quota campaign the public display of sales and monthly quotas on the huge thermometer in center square will be carried into the first week of the following month, Mr. Thomas explained. The current month's quota will be announced at the opening of each month but the thermometer figures will carry the last month's sales during the first week of the following months.

FARM BUREAU CO-OP TO MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Announcement was made today of the complete program for the ninth annual meeting of the Adams County Farm Bureau Cooperative association to be held in the Gettysburg high school auditorium Wednesday morning and afternoon.

Minutes of the 1942 annual meeting will be read by Secretary Clarence J. Waybright and President Keefe will deliver his annual address.

A committee will be named to nominate candidates for the three positions on the association's board of directors by reason of the expiration of the terms of President Keefe, Secretary Waybright and Treasurer Edgar W. Weaver. The election will be held later in the morning.

Mr. Weaver, as treasurer, and G. Marion Stambaugh, Farm Bureau manager, will present their annual reports. J. B. Collins, Farm Bureau Insurance manager for this county, will make his report for the year.

County Agent M. T. Hartman will be called upon for remarks and Gettysburg high school students under the direction of Miss Ruth A. McIlhenny of the school faculty will present two one-act plays. Mr. Agster's address will conclude the day's program with adjournment set for 4 o'clock.

W. J. STALLSMITH IS NAMED CHIEF OBSERVER HERE

Wilbur J. Stallsmith, East Middle street, has been named chief observer for the airplane spotter station which soon will be in operation on the roof of the First National bank building. It was announced today by Lawrence M. Sheads, chief of the aircraft warning service for this area.

His assistants will be Albert U. Cardenti, Richard C. Lighter, Elmer H. Schriver and Harold W. Wentz, Mr. Sheads said. Officers of the day will be assigned after the organization meeting of the spotters, which probably will be held next week. Instructions will be given at that session.

Mr. Sheads issued a special call today for volunteers to serve weekly on certain shifts that remain open on various days of the week.

Shifts Open

He listed the openings on the schedule as follows:

8 a. m. to 10 a. m. on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

10 a. m. to noon on Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Noon at 2 p. m. on Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

2 to 4 p. m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

4 to 6 p. m. on Saturday.

Mr. Sheads asked that any persons who already have signed for one shift and are willing to take a second in the same week should notify Mr. Stallsmith or any of his four assistants. Additional volunteers may enroll as spotters by calling in person or by telephone at the office of the county superintendent of schools at the court house from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. or may call Messrs. Schriver, Lighter or Cardenti.

A complete list of the spotters and the shifts assigned them soon will be published, Mr. Sheads said. Persons who signed several months ago as spotters but who are not able to serve now should notify Mr. Stallsmith or one of his assistants, Mr. Sheads stated.

NAVAL OFFICER WEDS MARCH 12

Invitations were received here today to the wedding of Miss Nancy Croom Murchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Temple Murchison, of Washington, to Lieutenant C. C. "Junie" Bream, Jr., at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, on Friday, March 12th.

The wedding will take place at 6:30 p. m. in the "Chapel of the Cross" at Chapel Hill where Lieutenant Bream is on duty with the Navy Pre-Flight school physical fitness division.

Lieutenant Bream is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and Gettysburg college. He starred in football, basketball and baseball at both institutions. For a number of years he was athletic director at Berwick high school. He enlisted in the Naval Reserve a year ago.

The couple will live at Chapel Hill.

POINT SYSTEM FOOD BUYING IS OPENED TODAY

A couple of blue coupons will get you a can of peas today—if you pay the usual price in cash.

After eight days in which nary a can of fruits or vegetables could be sold legally anywhere in the United States, rationed sales began.

Officials sat back to hear the complaints of housewives and clerks, regarded as inevitable at least for a few days until people get used to the "point system."

To help lessen the confusion, an estimated 1,000,000 specially trained volunteers stand ready in nearly every community to answer questions and help out generally.

Study Point Chart

To housewives, OPA's rationing administrator, Paul M. O'Leary, suggested a half hour's study of her shopping list and the point value chart before leaving the house. The real trick of "point rationing" is for each family to figure out, considering the point values of each item, just what it wants to get with its 48 points per person during March—to space purchases so that points will be left for month-end needs—to use high point coupons first so that at the end of the month it will be easier to add up combinations of small point coupons without needing change (grocers cannot give change in coupons).

Ordering may still be done by telephone and coupons given to delivery boys. But whether you go to the store or order by phone, don't tear out the coupon stamps until a store employee (including delivery boys) can watch you.

Hold Red Stamps

During March, you may use all the blue stamps which bear the letters A, B or C. The figures on these stamps—1, 2, 5 and 8—are the point values. Count them like coins. For a 16 point can, you may use two 8-point stamps, three 5's and a one, or any other combination.

Don't try to cash the red stamps. They're for meat rationing due to begin March 28.

1300 USABLE BOOKS SOUGHT FOR FIGHTERS

This is Victory Book Week in Adams county and the USO is appealing to countians to donate 1,300 usable books for the use of servicemen in this country and abroad.

"A book you really want to keep is a good book to give," Dean W. E. Tilberg, USO chairman in the county, said today. "Bring the books to the YWCA building on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon or evening. Committees will be at work there sorting and packing the volumes for immediate shipment."

Distribute Letter

This afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock Gettysburg Boy Scouts will make a house-to-house distribution of a Victory Book Drive letter signed by Dean Tilberg in which local residents are asked for "only the best books."

The letter says in part:

"These books will be read largely by men of high school and college age; by the hundreds of Gettysburg and Adams county boys who have given up their jobs and their educational plans to enter the service of their country. Consider carefully what kind of books your own son would like to read and then decide how many you can spare."

"The kind of books which the men in the services need and want are: 1. Any current best sellers or the more recently published (1930 to date) popular fiction and non-fiction, 2. Adventure and western, detective and mystery fiction, 3. History, Biography, Political Science and Economics, 4. Technical books, published since 1933. In fact, any adult book that is interesting, and enjoyable."

To Pack Volumes

Local residents who find it impossible to take their books to the YWCA building in person, should notify the "Y" office and the USO committee will arrange to collect them.

Axis Roads Are Cluttered With Bombed Vehicles

By CARL C. CRANMER

Associated Press War Editor

Allied forces were reported driving ahead in their counter-offensive in central Tunisia today after smashing a series of determined German assaults in the north by throwing in the full weight of their air power, which was said to have created "bloody chaos" in the German ranks.

On the now thawing Russian front, the Red army's 100-day winter offensive appeared to have been brought to a halt in the rich industrial and mining region of the Donets basin, but to the northwest the Soviets were still driving ahead toward the Dnieper and the western Ukraine from their newly won bases of Kharkov and Kursk.

Aerial Assaults

Meanwhile, keeping up the British and American aerial assault which began last Thursday night and has continued every day and night since, the RAF last night smashed into enemy territory after writing up February as the biggest month yet in tonnage of bombs dropped on the Nazis.

A Reuters dispatch from North Africa said American engineers, clearing away dense minefields which the Germans had planted to protect their retreat, had entered Feriana, 12 miles from the Algerian frontier and 40 miles northwest of Gafsa.

Here And There News Collected At Random

The Red Cross War Relief drive for $18,700 opened today in Adams county. No finer tribute to those who lost their lives in the war and to those risking their lives than to have Adams, Pennsylvania's first county, go "over the top" this week.

Captain Lester L. Lampert, Jr., son of Colonel and Mrs. Lester L. Lampert, former residents of Gettysburg, has been promoted to the rank of Major. He is stationed at Fort Wood, Missouri. Major Lampert graduated from West Point on the 25th anniversary of his father's graduation from "The Point."

Captain Paul D. Wood, a former student at Gettysburg Academy, is a prisoner of the Japs. He is remembered by a number of Gettysburgians as an energetic, aggressive, pleasant young man.

Lt. Col. George E. Abrams, former assistant professor of military science and tactics at Gettysburg college, is now PMST at Fort Union Military academy, Fort Union, Va.

There was only a handful of well-wishers on hand to say farewell to 106 Adams countians who left Gettysburg about seven o'clock this morning for induction into service.

"How much does it cost to put a story in the paper?" asked a local Boy Scout. He was mighty tickled when we told him "nothing." And here's his story:

Boy Scout Troop 78 made an overnight and day hike on Friday. The troop, nine Scouts with their Scoutmaster, hiked out to C.C.C. Camp No. 1 Friday afternoon. Each Scout had his bed-clothes and food. They took over one of the small buildings and made themselves at home. Scoutmaster Kerrigan was chef and he prepared a tasty meal, "although some of the food was burned," said our informant. After supper the Scouts sat around a warm fire and told stories. Then to bed. But at 3 o'clock in the morning they were all up . . . couldn't sleep. They "just sat around and talked" for awhile then went back to bed. Breakfast, a short hike and lunch followed. Some of the Scouts returned home early in the afternoon; others waited until later.

Said our informant: "Shucks, it didn't last long enough!"

Edward C. Beard Gets Commission

Edward C. Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beard, Carlisle street, was commissioned a second lieutenant last Friday upon completion of a three-month course at the Quartermaster School at Camp Lee, Virginia.

Lt. Beard is now spending a 10-day leave at his home after which he will leave for a new post in the west.

JAPAN MASSING NEW STRENGTH OFF AUSTRALIA

(By The Associated Press)

The United Nations were put on notice by Gen. Douglas MacArthur today that the Japanese, who for months have not attempted any large-scale offensive enterprise, are concentrating their main strength in the ring of islands stretching for 2,000 miles or more to the north of Australia.

"Our air reconnaissance over the past weeks reports a constant and growing reinforcement in all categories of enemy strength in the island perimeter enveloping the upper half of Australia," said the Allied headquarters communique issued in Australia.

"The enemy seems to be concentrating his main effort in preparation on this front. Such an assemblage of major force indicates he is taking up a position in readiness."

Navy on Alert

This announcement was supplemented by a headquarters spokesman who said the Japanese preparations might be either for defense or offense, and was matched by a statement by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the United States Pacific fleet, indicating that the U. S. Navy might have some cards up its sleeve.

This statement was taken in some quarters as a hint that the Navy was about ready for some offensive action aimed eventually at bringing not only American air power, but American artillery, within range of the Japanese homeland.

Meanwhile American and Australian troops which have smashed one Japanese Army of 15,000 in New Guinea were declared to have driven the Japanese back about 30 miles from Wau, site of an Allied airfield in northeastern New Guinea.

Other Actions

In other far Pacific areas, American airmen were busy striking blows in China and Burma. The American Air Force under Brig. Gen. Claire L. Chennault renewed its offensive against the Japanese along the Burma road, after a month's lay-off due to bad weather, and spilled tons of bombs on warehouses and barracks at Mangshih, 30 miles west of the Salween river, where the Japanese have been making some advances in a threat against China's Yunnan province. Huge fires were set.

Other American fliers from India were reported in a communique to have damaged, and probably sunk, a 7,000-ton merchant ship south of Rangoon, big Burma port, and to have spread devastation among warehouses and ammunition dumps at Waingmaw, a Japanese base in northern Burma used for the Yunnan drive.

canvass. Do not require them to make more than one appeal. Gladly then with a large contribution. Some have served each year since 1917. Soliciting may be easy and pleasant, it may be very hard.

"Today our hearts ache with the anguish of the world. For most of us there is but one balm besides prayer. Our hearts will ache a little less cruelly if we can say, 'We are there. We are in north Africa, we are in the islands of the Pacific. We are in Alaska, in Greenland. We are in munition plants, on ships, in all camps. Our eyes watch the rising waters of all rivers. Yesterday we cared for fire-scarred victims in Boston, today we stood at the entrance of a mine shaft in Montana. Tomorrow we receive, feed and clothe the shipwrecked. We are the Red Cross.'"

Auxiliary Bond Drive Extended

The American Legion Auxiliary's drive to sell $7,500 worth of Series "E" war bonds to purchase a submarine has been extended to March 15th. Mrs. Joseph E. Coffey, chairman of the war activities committee of the local Auxiliary, announced today.

"We are confident of achieving our goal before the deadline date of March 15th," Mrs. Coffey said. "We are a little short at the present time but we have several excellent prospects for bond sales which we feel will put us 'over the top' before the middle of the month."

Those contemplating the purchase of bonds and who wish to cooperate with the Auxiliary are urged to contact Mrs. Coffey. All war bond sales credited to the Auxiliary are also credited to the regular Adams county quota.

The fire victims were Charles Mears, 73, and William Body, 31, of Philadelphia and John Ginnivan, 45, Turtle Creek. All were killed when fire swept their homes, Mears and Body lived together.

FLEET READY FOR BIG PUSH

Washington, March 1 (AP)—The Pacific fleet is now ready, says its commander in chief, to start a drive toward the industrial heart of Japan itself.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz's intentions were disclosed in a statement issued through the Navy department in connection with the fund-raising campaign of the American Red Cross.

Nimitz did not stop with paying tribute to the Red Cross, but went on to say:

"We are now at the crossroads of the Pacific campaign. From now on the going will be tougher as we undertake the task of driving the enemy from prepared positions he has been building in the conquered areas."

His statement was preceded by a Navy communique reporting new successes in the Pacific war on attrition. In an attack on Japanese shipping in the central Solomon Saturday, countless dive bombers scored several hits on a transport off Vella La Vella, westernmost of the New Georgia islands, and left it burning. One of two accompanying Corvettes also was set afire.

At about the same time, other dive bombers raided the enemy air base at Munda for the 78th time, starting one large and two small fires. One enemy float-type Zero fighter was shot down in the attack on the transport and two American fighter planes were lost.

Maroon Cagers Whip Harrisburg Catholic; Meet Arendtsville Here Tonight

CRUSADERS GET 44-22 SETBACK HERE SATURDAY

Slow in getting started but a smooth running machine once underway, the Gettysburg high school courtmen humbled Harrisburg Catholic high here Saturday evening in impressive style 44-22 for their eleventh victory of the season as against one defeat.

Once again it was the same story of all of the Maroon players performing in fine style. Ross Sachs and Bobby March thrilled the fair-sized crowd with the long tosses while George Boehner, who topped the scorers with 12 points, and George Fair, were particularly strong in taking the ball off the back boards.

A highlight of the evening was the playing of Jimmy Spahr who performed at guard for about three periods. He played a brilliant all-around game and looped four goals and a pair of fouls.

Early Lead
March and Sinkovitz matched long shots in that order to open the game. March looped a foul and Boehner scored from beneath the hoop. Reagan netted a side shot to cut the Maroons lead to 5-4 after five minutes of play. Fair landed a close shot and Reagan connected on a throw from mid-court. Boehner scored from beneath the basket to give Gettysburg a 9-6 lead at the quarter.

Coach Forney's lads began to get the range of the basket in the second period. March looped a long throw, Boehner a short toss and Sachs a one-hander in the first minute of play. Sachs then netted a long throw and Spahr an overhead toss to send the Maroons ahead 19-6. Pease scored on two short throws and again Sachs cut the cords from far out. Reagan's short shot made the score 21-12 at half time.

Gettysburg showed its best advantage in the third quarter when they bewildered the Crusaders with a 23-point attack while its opponents could muster but five.

Strong Attack
Sachs opened with two goals before Reagan landed a short throw. Spahr made good on a one-handed shot. Boehner and March scored in quick succession from the floor. Boehner netted two fouls and Fair and Spahr single free tosses to put Gettysburg ahead 35-15 with four and a half minutes of play gone in the second half. Goals by Spahr, Sachs and Boehner enabled the Maroons to lead 44-17 at the close of the round.

The Maroon scrubs played the last period and the scrappy Harrisburg team did not allow a score while Reagan and Russ landed goals and Pease a foul to create the final score.

With a minute of play remaining Coach George Forney sent in his regulars with orders not to shoot but to brush up on their passing and they gave a snappy performance of retaining possession of the ball.

Bucky Harris Awaits Player Applications

Philadelphia, March 1 (AP)—The door was open and the "welcome" mat out today at the headquarters of the Philadelphia Phils as new manager Bucky Harris sat back and waited—hopefully—for a rush of major league ballplayers.

Harris, who announced plans for "open house" several days ago, said he was ready to welcome any player with either major or minor league experience who could produce a draft registration card without 1-A classification. He said he was encouraged by the volume of replies to his invitation.

But neither Harris nor William D. Cox, head of the syndicate which assumes control of the Phils Wednesday under an agreement with the National league, was prepared to offer any and all applicants a contract.

If candidates are promising, Bucky said, the Phils will take them to spring training, opening March 15 at Hershey.

Famous Race Horse Dies At Age Of 27

Peter Manning 1:56 1/4, former world's champion trotter, died during last week at the age of 27 years, an announcement from the management of the Hanover Shoe Farms disclosed Saturday. The great trotter, a familiar figure on race tracks in many parts of the country in the 1920's, has been buried in a plot at the Hanover Shoe Farms.

Peter Manning trotted to his world's record of 1:56 1/4 in 1922, at the age of six years, and held his title until 1937 when Greyhound trotted in 1:56 at Lexington, Kentucky. Greyhound reduced his record to 1:55 1/4 in 1938. Peter Manning's record was equalled by only one other trotter, the great mare Rosalind, in 1938.

The famous gelding became the property of the Hanover Shoe Farms on February 28, 1926, in the midst of his decade of exhibition performances.

Three Cage Games Here This Evening

A triple-header cage program has been listed for tonight on the Gettysburg high school court.

At 6:15 o'clock the Lincoln school cagers will meet Franklin township consolidated school. Following this the senior class team will meet the Maroon scrubs.

High-lighting the evening's program will be the clash between the undefeated Arendtsville high cagers and Coach Forney's varsity. The game will mark the final appearance on the local court of Ross Sachs, George Boehner, Don Wickerham, Jimmy Spahr and Gaylord Fissel, all of whom are seniors.

Four Eliminated In Cage Tourney

Pittsburgh, March 1 (AP)—With four of the 26 teams in the WPIAL Basketball tournament already eliminated, four more teams clash tonight in Class B playoffs. Claysville, Section 20 winner, meets east Bethlehem, Section 15 titlist, at Washington, and Belle Vernon, Section 17 winner, meets Sewickley township, Section 25 titlist, at Donora.

Duquesne defeated Waynesburg, 68 to 30, in the first Class A playoff Saturday night at Pitt stadium. Clark, Section 12 winner, defeated Robinson, Section 14 winner, 28 to 25, in a Class B game at the stadium. Oakmont, Section 19 titlist, eliminated Export, Section 22 titlist, 40 to 29, in a Class B game at Penn high.

Donelli Signed As Dukes' Coach

Pittsburgh, March 1 (AP)—Duquesne university has renewed the contract of Head Coach Aldo T. (Buff) Donelli, thereby quashing reports it was planning to abandon intercollegiate football.

John D. Holahan announced the re-signing of Donelli, Steve Sinko, his assistant, and Lew Skender, freshman coach, after a special meeting of the school's athletic committee. Donelli was given a three-year contract.

The head mentor, who announced a few weeks ago he had applied for a Naval commission, commented the Dukes would have "some kind of team this fall, perhaps mostly from 17-year-olds."

with some neat ball handling.

Scrubs Victors
The Maroon scrubs encountered little trouble in defeating East Berlin high 21-9 in the preliminary game. Although far from up to par, the Forney-men led throughout and at half time were out in front 13-2.

LAST PERIOD SPURT GIVES BULLETS WIN

After trailing throughout the better part of the game the Gettysburg college Cagers put on a whirlwind attack in the final period to tab 17 points and nosed out Bucknell at Lewisburg Saturday evening 34-32 for their seventh victory of the season.

The first quarter was slow with Gettysburg outscoring Bucknell 6-3. Freedman opened the scoring after 2:15 minutes had elapsed. During the remainder of the quarter both teams were unable to find the range.

The second frame was all Bucknell with Fornwald and Burns connected four points apiece to put the herd into a 15-11 lead as the half ended. Freedman and Davis each accounted for two points as Gettysburg failed to locate the rim. The Bullets scored but five points in the second quarter which was the least number of points in a period they have scored in any game this year.

Bisons Boost Lead
Opening the third quarter with a long shot, Fornwald again led the Bison attack with four points to boost Bucknell's lead to nine points. Gettysburg kept missing their shots and were in the hole by nine points as the quarter ended.

Bombarding the basket in the last canto the Bullets went on a scoring rampage to pull the game out of the fire as Dracha and Davis netted three goals apiece to lead the Battle-field attack.

"Cy" Davis, opened the fourth period by scoring of two consecutive goals after which Dracha and Parnell counted in quick succession to run the count to 25-26, Bucknell leading.

Dracha Clinches Game
After the second Bucknell timeout Burns and Fornwald counted with two-and-a-half minutes left in the game. Freedman then tossed in a set shot which, followed by Parnell's long one from midcourt tied the game at 30-30.

Davis and Hamre exchanged goals with thirty seconds left in the game. Dracha stole the ball with 15 seconds remaining and laid it in for the winning counter as the game went off.

Play Here Thursday
Gettysburg's new style of play featured by the fast break has paid dividends in the last two games and may pay off again on Thursday when the Bullets tangle with F and M Pre-Flight at the Eddie Plank Memorial gym.

The F and M game was scheduled after the Dickinson game, originally scheduled for Wednesday at Carlisle, was cancelled by the president of Dickinson college as a result of the Army taking over the college.

Lykens Unbeaten Under Woman Coach

Lykens, Pa., March 1 (AP)—Miss Grace Bingham of Lykens High School today was credited with being the first woman coach to have a boys' basketball team entered in the title playoffs of District 3, Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic association.

Graduated from Temple university last year, she tutored her boy proteges so well they won 16 straight games in the present season. The team meets Newport high on the latter's floor Friday night in a quarter-final of the Class B playoffs.

Miss Bingham, who came here from Norristown, also coached the Lykens girls' team to 15 victories in 16 games.

Tabs 57 Points But His Team Is Beaten

Scranton, Pa., March 1 (AP)—Little Dick Fiederback, Honesdale Catholic high school forward, scored 57 points to set a new Catholic Basketball league scoring record yesterday—but his team lost.

While Fiederback was dropping 26 field goals and five free throws through the hoops, his mates accumulated only six points. Meanwhile the opposition, St. Mary's high of Scranton, tallied 82. The Honesdale forward's big spree gave him a total of 305 points for the season and league individual honors for the second successive year.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 1 (AP)—Our old friend, Mr. Reliable Source passes around the tip that Southern California is cancelling its football game with Notre Dame, scheduled for next fall and that Stanford probably will follow suit. . . . Reason is transportation, and all hands likely will book service teams to fill the gaps in the schedules. . . . There'll be a lot more of that before September and our idea is that most colleges not only will depend on freshmen for players but will be playing typical freshman-team schedules. . . . The question now arises: How many kids almost 18 years old will think it's worth while to go to college for one season unless some good inducements are offered?

SENESKY LEADS STATE SCORERS; AIMS AT 509

Philadelphia, March 1 (AP)—Big, blonde George Senesky, from Mahanoy City, today held the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate basketball scoring record for a single season, and with two games to go was within 35 points of a new eastern intercollegiate mark.

While his St. Joseph college teammates were trouncing Ursinus 77-35 in the opening game of the Convention Hall triple header Saturday night, Senesky scored 28 points to boost his season total to 474, eclipsing the mark of 447 set by "Pistol Pete" Pasko of East Stroudsburg Teachers' in 1941.

Seeks Eastern Honor

Ahead of the big fellow, whom his veteran coach, Bill Ferguson, rates "as good as any player I've ever seen," is the eastern record of 509 points, set by Stan Modzelewski of Rhode Island State two seasons back. If he maintains his usual pace through St. Joseph's two remaining games, Senesky can be expected to pass that mark, but he's far away from the unofficial national record of 718 points set last year by John "Brooms" Abramovic of Salem college, Clarksburg, West Virginia.

In addition to Pasko's modern state intercollegiate mark, Senesky's total now exceeds the former all-state mark set by Bill Anderson, present Lower Merion high coach, at 449 points when he played for Lafayette in 1918 (Anderson shot all of his team's free throws).

Other records which have been broken by the St. Joseph's star include Hank Luisetti's top total of 447 points in 25 games for Stanford in 1938, and George Glumack's best mark of 426 points in 18 games for North Carolina university in 1941. Glumack, incidentally, also is a Pennsylvanian, a graduate of Johnstown high.

Toronto Club Will Train At Lancaster

Lancaster, Pa., March 1 (AP)—The Toronto club of the International baseball league will train this year at Stump Field—home of the Lancaster Red Roses of the Inter-state league—it was announced today by Benjamin Campbell, Toronto's business manager.

Campbell said the spring training quarters were being moved here because of the proximity of the Phillies training quarters at Hershey, Pa., and the possibilities of spring practice games between the two teams. He said training facilities here also are good generally.

The team members will arrive March 28.

Army Turns Down Brooklyn Manager

New York, March 1 (AP)—Leo (The Lip) Durocher, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was rejected by the Army today because of a perforated ear-drum.

Durocher, who will be 38 years old July 27, took his physical examination with a large number of other inductees and afterward expressed disappointment over failure to pass the examination.

Durocher said he would confer with President Branch Rickey of the Dodgers later in the day and then go to West Point, probably tomorrow, to take up his duties as advisory coach at the United States Military academy. The Dodgers are due to report at Bear Mountain for spring training, March 15.

Lafayette Pins Bullet Matmen

"Pete" Beeson's Gettysburg college wrestling team lost its second match as against one victory Saturday night when it bowed to Lafayette at Easton 21-15.

This week the Bullet grapplers will conclude their season by engaging in the Middle Atlantic which open Friday at Haverford college.

TRIPLE WINNER

New York, March 1 (AP)—Charles E. Ash of the Hill school, Pottstown, Pa., is the first athlete ever to win three events in the national intercollegiate indoor track and field championships. He won the 60-yard hurdles, broad and high jumps Saturday and received a gold watch from the Millrose Athletic association as the outstanding athlete of the meet.

TIGERS IN PLAYOFFS

By winning 57-19 over John Harris high Saturday night, William Penn high gained the right to represent the Central Pennsylvania league in the District 3 basketball playoffs. Reading can tie the Tigers for first place by winning Friday at Lancaster but the Red Knights will not enter the playoffs which means Coach Vic Emanuel's lads will make their third straight appearance in district play.

Approximately 77,000 acres of rubber are under cultivation in Liberia.

Author Cleared

For the first time since her trial started, novelist Ursula Parrot flashed a wide smile after a Federal Court jury in Miami, Fla., cleared her of charges growing out of the smuggling of a handsome soldier out of an Army stockade.

EASTERN LOOP OPENS MAY 4; 6 OR 8 CLUBS

New York, March 1 (AP)—The Eastern league is going to open its season May 4, but it doesn't know whether it will have six or eight clubs.

Two of last year's members, Elmira, N. Y., and Williamsport, Pa., announced at a meeting of the league yesterday that they would not be able to operate this season and asked that their territory be "frozen" until after the war. But they agreed to let league president Thomas H. Richardson dispose of the franchises if he could.

William R. Waldo, president of the Williamsport club, said Saturday the directors decided to surrender the franchise because "the lack of suitable train connections between Williamsport and other points in the circuit makes it impossible for us to carry out any schedule the league may adopt."

Charter Member

Williamsport was a charter member of the league, set up in 1923 under the name of the New York-Pennsylvania league.

Richardson declared "I believe I can place these two franchises in towns that will be acceptable to the league" and said he would go to work on it today. He indicated his call would be right back in Elmira, N. Y., where he hoped local interests might continue even though John Ogden, the present owner, found it necessary to drop out.

Williamsport was given until midnight tonight to place its suspension on record, thus gaining time in which to dispose of players on its roster in the event that no buyer for the club intact appeared. Representatives of the Montreal and Syracuse clubs of the International league were on hand yesterday seeking to purchase some of the players.

Post Guarantees

The other six clubs, Springfield, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Albany and Binghamton, N. Y., and Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., all posted guarantees.

Opening day was set definitely for May 4, with plans for a 140-game schedule closing September 12 if the league has eight clubs, or a 130-game schedule closing September 6 if only six start.

May Draft Women

Senator Austin (R-Vt) and Rep. Wadsworth (R-NY) expressed gratification over Secretary of War Stimson's endorsement of their bill to draft men and women for factory and farm where necessary. Stimson, in a letter to Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) of the Senate military committee, urged prompt passage of the measure because of what he termed the "increasing evidence of the inadequacy" of present voluntary controls.

WHAT WIVES DISCOVER

The burden of most wives' complaints
When honeymooning days have ended.Is not because their erstwhile saints
Have suddenly to earth descended.
Within the month the gentlest bride
This truth about him will discover:A married man soon puts aside
The lustre of an ardent lover.What sets the good wife's teeth on edgeIs evidence of careless training.
Cigar stubs on the window ledge,
Umbrellas in the corner draining;The proof that one who seemed to be A specimen which all could copy
Is just another man, very sloppy!Ashes and papers where he sits, Clothes left upon the bathroom

Who'd hoped forever to be smiling.
One who did everything to please
Is now indifferent to neatness.Wants nothing but to be at ease;
And that's why women lose their sweetness.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

ARE YOU A QUIETIST?

How very little we appreciate our influence upon others, and yet in some degree or other, we influence everyone with whom we come in contact.In the same manner as a change in the weather affects each one of us, so does the change of personalities affect us as we come in contact with all sorts of folks from day to day. Some repel, and some attract us. The one we like most to meet is that one who brings a quieting effect with him or her—a Quietist.

I would call such a one!

A talkative person—who seems to have the ability never to say anything—just words blown into the air, of all persons, is the one whom we dislike to meet. But the one who comes calmly into our presence, speaking not at all, excepting when he has something interesting or helpful to say, soothes us like a cool breeze on a hot day in summer.People who leave us lonely, and anxious for their return, are always welcome. They bring light into our lives and calm our nerves. They take burdens from our backs, and suggest smooth roads ahead. They are Quietists who comfort us in soul.People with whom you like to sit, travel, or live, are of this sort. People who would be greatly missed when away. They are the ones who say little and think much, actually radioing thoughts unexpressed! Like sitting quietly in a beloved library among books that have often spoken to us in the past—but which at times merely keep their places on the shelves, inanimate breathing as though once again the living author.I have a book in my library entitled "Books and the Quiet Life." Books do more than anything I know of, to help us live the quiet life. And people who have drenched their minds with what books have to tell, are almost always Quietists, for they have so much to think about.Life offers so much to the Quietist —and the Quietist offers so much, also, to everyone with whom he comes in contact. Why not be a Quietist?Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Friendship's Substance."

Sixty-Nine Men Trapped In Montana Mine Explosion

FAMILIES WAIT
IN SILENCE AS
RESCUERS WORK

By LEIF ERICKSON

Bearcreek, Mont., March 1 (AP)— Numb, silent relatives of 69 miners imprisoned in the Smith coal mine since an explosion Saturday waited today while rescuers combatted deadly gases with an emergency air blower set deep in the hillside mine.At least five miners were known dead from the blast. Their bodies were recovered.Seven other bodies, a source who refused to be quoted said last night, have been located but could not immediately be brought out because of conditions of the tunnels.Wives, mothers and sisters waited stoically in the face of rapidly vanishing hopes that the entombed men could still be alive. The miners had been without food since about 10
a. m. (MST) Saturday.

Cause Is Unknown

The cause of the blast remained unknown.Equipped with gas masks, 40-man rescue crews worked in six-hour shifts.Two of the five known dead were identified as Dewey Hardy, 48, of Red Lodge, and Ignace Marinchek, 55, of Bearcreek, killed in No. 2 vein.The explosion was the first in the Smith mine, operated since 1906. It is the property of the Montana Coal and Iron company. The people of Bearcreek and Washoe, situated in a narrow valley, have been almost solely dependent on the mine.Governor Sam Ford of Montana arrived here last night, and immediately offered state assistance where-ever needed.5 WAR SHIPS ARE LAUNCHED

Kearny, N. J., March 1 (AP)—

Five ships of war splashed into waters off New Jersey here and in Camden yesterday.The Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company launched four destroyers—the USS Thorn, USS Bullard, USS Kidd and the USS Turner—two at a time within 14 minutes.At Camden, the New York Shipbuilding corporation launched the US Monterey, an aircraft carrier of the Independence class.Federal's Kearny yards set a new record for its third quadruple launching yesterday, cutting its time from a 28-minute span between the Armistice Day splashes of its second quadruple launching.The Monterey was christened less than 14 months after keel laying and was the fifth aircraft carrier to be launched from the Camden yards in slightly more than six months.The yard has averaged one carrier launching every 36.6 days since last August 22.

Sponsors of yesterday's launchings were: USS Monterey, Mrs. P. N. L.

Bellinger, Washington, D. C.; USS and a number of other cities has been approved as part of a $500-000,000 program."The purpose of this advance engineering is to provide fully planned road-building projects ready for immediate construction after the war," declared Commissioner Thomas H. MacDonald. The construction would be financed jointly by the federal government and the states, with the latter matching federal contributions. Specific de-

'Near End of Rope'

Dr. Gustav Stolper (above), New York economist and former German Reichstag member, predicted in an address for a mortgage bankers association in Chicago that Nazi military power might be broken within the next year and that Hitler "is much closer to the end of his rope than the American public dares to assume."

Flashes of Life

BANKING PROBLEM

Atlanta (AP)—An Atlanta bank, which had advertised 20 checks for one dollar in a special checking account, received a post card addressed to "Twenty Checks, 58 Marietta St., Atlanta, Ga."

The card said:

"I read in the paper where you advertised twenty checks for a dollar. I'd like to buy some checks but would like to know what kind they are. Please write me giving a description as I want to know what kind they are before placing my order."The card came from a woman at Cordelle, Ga.

NO EAR FOR COLORS

New Bern, N. C. (AP)—Civilian Defense officials were floored by this one from a woman who, confused by the eastern defense command's new blackout signals, inquired sweetly:"How in the world can we ever tell in the dark during a night blackout whether the warning signal is blue or red?"

OVERSIGHT

Kansas City (AP)—Mrs. Florence Flahive couldn't help screaming after the bandits who robbed her:

"Don't take my furs!"

And, she told police, they threw her silver fox fur back to her as they drove away.She wishes she'd mentioned the $1,905 worth of jewelry they stole.

ANTI-CLIMAX

Scottsbluff, Neb. (AP)—Ben

Wagner considered himself lucky to escape without injury when a train wrecked his truck until—A policeman came up, handed him a ticket for driving without a license.State Does Not Ask Special FundsWashington, March 1 (AP)—Pennsylvania and three other states, alone, did not apply for federal funds for maternity care of service men's wives, a House subcommittee was informed by the children's bureau during hearings on the first deficiency appropriations bill for 1943.The bureau asked for $1,200,000 for grants to states and territories which have made application, but the subcommittee refused to recommend funds for the program."The Pennsylvania Health department had told us that unless they could be perfectly sure that a program of this sort would be continued for approximately a year's time they would not want it," Dr.
Martha M. Eliot, associate chief of the bureau, told the committee.The bureau's charts disclosed that states, in addition to Pennsylvania, which did not apply for federal funds under the program were Massachusetts, Ohio and Virginia.Plan Increase In Potato AcreageHarrisburg, March 1 (AP)—A survey of 2,035 farms in 13 Pennsylvania counties by the state Agricultural Adjustment agency disclosed farmer plan increases of from 21 per cent to more than 100 per cent in acreage devoted to potatoes, soy beans and vegetables.Clyde A. Zehner, vice chairman of the state AAA, said the survey was made in Dauphin, Berks, Northampton, Cambria, Chester, Crawford, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Union, Snyder, Mifflin and Juniata counties.He estimated potato acreage will be up 21 per cent; soy beans more than 100 per cent; and fresh vegetables, 30 per cent, adding the same report showed a dairy cattle increase of eight per cent; laying hens,
16 per cent; and hogs, six per cent.MANY DRIVERS
FACE PLEASURE
BAN SCRUTINYPhiladelphia, March 1 (AP)— Many hundreds of motorists in eastern Pennsylvania who chose to ignore an OPA warning of intensive week-end traffic checks, today were under orders to report to their local rationing boards for violation of the pleasure driving ban.OPA agents, carrying out plans announced Saturday, operated in and around many large communities Saturday night and Sunday, and unofficial reports indicated that the total of drivers cited for violations might reach several thousands.Allentown and Pottstown were typical examples. At Allentown it was reported 250 cars were checked in the business and theater districts Saturday night and 350 more on Sunday. Agents commented that 50 per cent of the driving was not essential. Six agents checked some 200 motorists near Pottstown early Sunday, and another 300 during the afternoon. Of the afternoon tourists, the investigators reported "five out of six" claimed to be going to or coming from church services.

Find Loose Coupons

Similar checks were made here and at Reading.Charles L. Ware, district chief attorney for OPA at Harrisburg, commented that the widespread checkup was ordered because "the public seemed to think we were letting up a bit." He said he did not know the total of drivers cited.In many places the checkups caused traffic snarls as long lines of stopped cars waited to pass the examining agents. Strategic centers, such as bridges across the Lehigh and Delaware rivers at Easton, were chosen by the investigators.Agents reported seizure of a number of coupons detached from gasoline books, and said that one phase of the checkup was to determine if B and C book holders displayed the proper stickers on the windshields of their cars.DAVIS ABSENT

Russia has given emphatic notice that Poland must abandon any hope of recovering the eastern half of the territories in which the Polish Republic existed before September 1, 1939. "Only a hopeless fool can bebe given back to the Poles, says an article circulated by the Soviet embassy in Washington which carries the strong implication that the same applies to western White Russia.These were the territories, totalling some 78,000 square miles with a population of 13,000,000, which were taken over by Russia in 1939 when she and Germany effected the fourth partitioning of Poland. Although the Russian-German agreement is says the boundaries it fixed must stand. The Red Army intends to clear the Hitlerites from what once was eastern Poland but not to return it to the Poles.

3,400,000 DIE AT NAZI HANDS

London, March 1 (AP)—Nearly 3,400,000 persons had been executed or had died in prison in nine Nazi-occupied countries by the end of 1942, the inter-Allied information committee of the United Nations said in a statement today.

The statement said the figure was based mainly on German announcements.

Suggesting that the real total is higher, the statement said the Germans frequently concealed executions and Gestapo-caused deaths were "never revealed."

Poland, where 1,000,000 Jews were said to have been killed or permitted to die in concentration camps, had the highest figure for all the occupied countries with an announced total of 2,500,000 deaths.

Other totals include: Yugoslavia, 740,000; France, 24,000; Greece, 18,000; Czechoslovakia, 2,463; Netherlands, 2,200; Belgium, 193; Norway, 140; and Luxembourg, 129.

The figures do not include victims of towns such as Lidice, Czechoslovakia, and others in Yugoslavia and Greece which were wiped out in reprisal for sabotage or resistance.

Coatesville, Pa., March 1 (AP)—A man identified as Robert Deichler, about 36, of Lancaster, was decapitated today when a large oil truck he was operating collided with a milk truck on west Lincoln highway near Sadsburyville.

The operator of the milk truck was taken to the Coatesville hospital where he was listed as E. C. Cowan.

The oil truck cut off a large tree at the side of the road and overturned. It took workers an hour to extricate Deichler's body from the wreckage. Both of his legs and one arm were torn off.

Income Tax

No. 50
ITEMS NOT DEDUCTIBLE

Personal, living, or family expenses and capital expenditures are not deductible items in the computation of the statutory net income, whereas all the ordinary and necessary expenses of carrying on any trade or business are deductible.

In the event a taxpayer is engaged in an occupation which requires the use of equipment, as in the cases of Army officers, ball players, firemen, aviators, nurses, and surgeons, the cost of such is deductible only to the extent (1) that it is specifically required and (2) that it does not take the place of ordinary clothing. Thus expenditures for the purchase and cleaning of jockeys' uniforms and baseball uniforms of professional baseball players and the cost of raincoats, boots, and helmets of city firemen and policemen are allowable deductions, while the cost of uniforms of Army and Navy officers, nurses, railway trainmen, barbers, and surgeons is a personal expense and not deductible.

Among other nondeductible items of expense paid or incurred by taxpayers during the taxable year there may be mentioned premiums on life insurance policies, insurance paid on a dwelling owned and occupied by a taxpayer, amounts expended in seeking a position or in traveling to the place of a new position, commuters' fares, the cost of post-graduate courses, bar examination fees, expenditures for the maintenance and operation of an automobile used for personal convenience and not by reason of necessity in connection with a business, penalty payments with respect to Federal taxes—whether on account of negligence, delinquency, or fraud—amounts paid by a parent to unemancipated minor children for services rendered by such minor children, and amounts deducted and withheld from the wages or salary of employees as Federal old-age benefit tax.

Call Rickenbacker

Chairman Vinson of the Naval committee announced that Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, who has been critical of the progress of war production, would be asked to testify on the subject. The views of Secretary of the Navy Knox and Secretary of Labor Perkins also will be sought. With a close fight in prospect, the House will devote Tuesday to legislation for a standing committee on civil aviation, a proposal endorsed by the Republican minority and opposed by many prominent Democrats. At the same time, the Rules committee will vote on the Hobbs anti-racketeering bill, which would subject labor organizations to penalties provided by a 1934 act for interference with interstate shipping. The bill has drawn the outspoken opposition of organized labor.

A new Naval appropriation bill and legislation to continue the Lend-Lease program are expected to reach the House floor during the latter part of the week.

Philadelphia, March 1 (AP)—The War Manpower commission order directing adoption of the 48-hour week by the nation's lumber industry will be effective in Pennsylvania, according to Louis B. F. Raycroft, director of Region 3 of the WMC. The region includes Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

Representatives of the industry are expected to confer with Raycroft this week on application of the order, which covers virtually every type of plant employing more than eight persons.

WORK OR FIGHT WILL BE RULE FOR CONGRESS

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, March 1 (AP)—Start-off with a "work or fight" measure, the House today faced a week of legislative action fraught with controversy and potential headaches for Administration leaders.

Crowded into the program on the floor and before committees are measures vitally affecting labor, men of draft age, the aviation industry, the food production effort and the war and Lend-Lease programs.

While the farm bloc sought clearance from the Rules committee for legislation to revise the farm parity formula and to reopen the Price Control law, Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts scheduled for House action today a bill aimed at putting Army or Navy uniforms on Navy yard workers who habitually absent themselves from their jobs.

Problem of the WIRE CAGE

BY JOHN DICKSON CARR

Chapter 33

"Mind you, our friend never intended to create a 'miracle' murder," Dr. Fell continued. "All he wanted to do was leave a strangled corpse which could not be the work of Nicholas Young. If he had chosen dry weather, we might never have had cause to suspect the kind of strangling this was. But he couldn't wait; he had to take the moment that blazed. He never for a moment dreamed that serious footprints, identifiable footprints, can be left on a tennis-court even when it is wet. And once he had begun the job it was too late.

"He was back up in his study before twenty minutes past seven. He was not only emotionally exhausted, glutted with triumph; he was physically done in as well. He fell on that couch and slept with outward peacefulness; though I should not be surprised to hear that his dreams were horrible, or that, when he was roused up, the strain he had put on his mending bones, burnt him with a pain of the damned."

"Maria woke him there, in a state of physical sickness, at twenty minutes to eight. His acting powers were still of the first ability—until he heard from Maria that Brenda White had been caught in the trap. Then it was not acting. The pretence cracks across; and he becomes a madman. He was a madman when he talked to Hadley a little later. He was a madman when he tried, at any cost and even in defiance of common sense, to fasten the murder on Hugh Rowland. But then, you see, he thought he had to. He had seen his whole scheme endangered by witnessing one love-scene outside the gate of his house.

"He was a madman when he tried to support his pose as bluff, sympathetic Old Nick by sending a 'little cheque' to Madge Sturgess. He had got her address from Hadley on Saturday afternoon (you recall?) and promised a cheque. He was fool enough to send this, even though he must have known the bank had clamped down on his overdraft and would not honour it."

Madge Sturgess spoke, pale with fury.

"You bet they wouldn't. And I told Mrs. Bancroft so. They're not any such grand people! They—" "And he was a madman at his very worst," concluded Dr. Fell, "when without plan, rhyme, reason, or any protection whatsoever, he shot Arthur Chandler at the Orpheum theatre yesterday."

Even Hugh protested at this. "Sir, he couldn't have! We heard all about that yesterday. No stranger went in or out of that theatre."

It was Hadley who answered him. "Did you ever hear, young man, of a pair of comedians called Schlosser & Weazle?"

"Well, I have," snapped Madge, now started. "They've been doing the same stuff for years. They were on yesterday, for dress-rehearsal. Schlosser is a comic colonel on crutches, with his leg done up in bandages to show it's gout."

Hugh's memory opened. "Wait! I remember seeing—" "That's the whole story," said you if I had both my hands and Hadley grimly. "We dug it out today when we weren't so swamped with miracles. Two people across the street on a dark, wet day swore they saw no strangers leaving the theatre. What they thought they saw was Schlosser, an old-timer, coming out of the place and ducking round the corner to the pub for a quick one before closing-time. (The time was a quarter to three.) What they really saw was something else altogether."

He took a step forward. "That, Dr. Young, is the outline of the case you'll be expected to meet. You've heard it all; and we've also"—he glanced at the shorthand reporter, who nodded—"we've also got enough confirmation from these various witnesses to justify our calling them here. Do you want to make any statement?"

It had grown much darker by the time the case was opened. The poplars were thin weights of shadow against the sky; the wisp had gone with twilight. But someone threw the switch for the floodlights, and the deathly bluish glare lit up every corner. The bars of shadow sprang out across the court, and two of them met in the middle at the edge of the scuffed circle where Frank's body had lain.

Nick took one look round at it, and jerked his head back. His face was bluish, the color of swim-milk, and they heard him breathe.

"You're a pack of dirty liars," he said through stiff jaws. "You'd all rat on me. Nobody's got any friendliness for me. You don't believe this, do you, Brenda?"

"I'm afraid I do," said Brenda.

"Then you can go to hell," said Nick, "for a dirty crooked little piece of goods who would—"

"Steady!" said Hadley, as Nick finished the sentence, and even Kitty went a little white. "The explicit and obscene coldness of it would not be washed out. We'll have no more of that, my friend. We'll hear about evidence from you, if you feel disposed to talk. For instance: how much did 'you know about what Chandler knew about you'?"

"Try to make me tell you."

"You knew," said Hadley, "that he'd been at the pavilion. You guessed it; by the fact that the newspaper left in the pavilion was there at seven o'clock and gone at seven-thirty. So you decided Chandler knew too much. You got Maria to ring him up on the telephone on Sunday—and find out where he was. And you shot him. Is that, or isn't it, correct?"

"Get me out of here, Hugh," said Brenda, and choked. "Get me out of here before I—"

"By all means," said Nick, "get her out of here. I can't stand the sight of the lying wench who'd let down her old guardian and believe he did all this muck when I'm innocent and the whole dithering lot of you can't prove any different. You talk very high and mighty, don't you? 'Nick did this, and Nick did that.'—he wagged his head and grotesque parody—and all the time you're bluffing and making a ruddy rotten bluff of it too. I'd skin the hide of all of you if I had both my hands and

50 Jap Soldiers Killed By Indians

New Delhi, March 1 (AP)—Fifty Japanese soldiers were killed and others captured in a light naval engagement off Ramree Island Friday night, when coastal craft of the Royal Indian Navy encountered two armed enemy launches heavily loaded with troops and ammunition, a British communiqué announced today.

One of the launches was blown up and the other left in sinking condition, the war bulletin said. Ramree Island is just off the coast of Burma about 60 miles below the Japanese base at Akyab.

Philadelphia, March 1 (AP)—Institutional and industrial users of rationed foods were reminded by the Office of Price Administration today that they must register with local rationing boards before March 10 to receive March and April allotments of rationed foods.

legs. How do you know what I did? I suppose you've got a big gold-framed picture of me, all hanging up and ready to display?"

Hadley opened his brief-case. "It's not exactly gold-framed," he said. But they're all enlarged. It might interest you to look at the eight photographs of you killing Dorrance. Chandler took them from various angles on the east side of the court, and this one of the expression on your face when you turned round towards the camera—"

He stopped. Nick's eyes seemed to have retreated into his head. Nick surged up out of the chair. The crutch was across his lap, and he flung a blow at Hadley's skull that almost broke Hadley's arm before the crutch was wrenched away. It was the last word he said. He was weeping at his own sad plight when they took him away.

GAINS, LOSSES OF RETAILERS

Washington, March 1 (AP)—The dollar volume of sales of independent retailers in Pennsylvania, excepting department stores, was six per cent lower in January of this year than in January, 1942, a survey by the Department of Commerce disclosed today.

Substantial gains were reported by restaurants, cafeterias, lunchrooms, drinking places and drug stores, the department said, and by food stores, florists, shoe stores and general stores. However these were more than offset by sharp drops in men's clothing and furnishings stores, filling stations, lumber-building materials, furniture stores, hardware stores, household appliance dealers and motor vehicle dealers.

Gains and Losses

Sales by motor vehicle dealers, alone, the department reported were 50 per cent under the January, 1942 figure.

The commerce department listed these gains and losses by cities, based on comparison of total sales for January 1943 and January 1942 (number in parenthesis indicates per cent):

Gains: Wilkes-Barre (6); Williamsport (2).

Losses: Johnstown (24); Scranton (19); Altoona (16); New Castle (13); Allentown (13); York (8); Easton (7); Lancaster (7); Harrisburg (6); Pittsburgh (5); Reading (5); Erie (5).

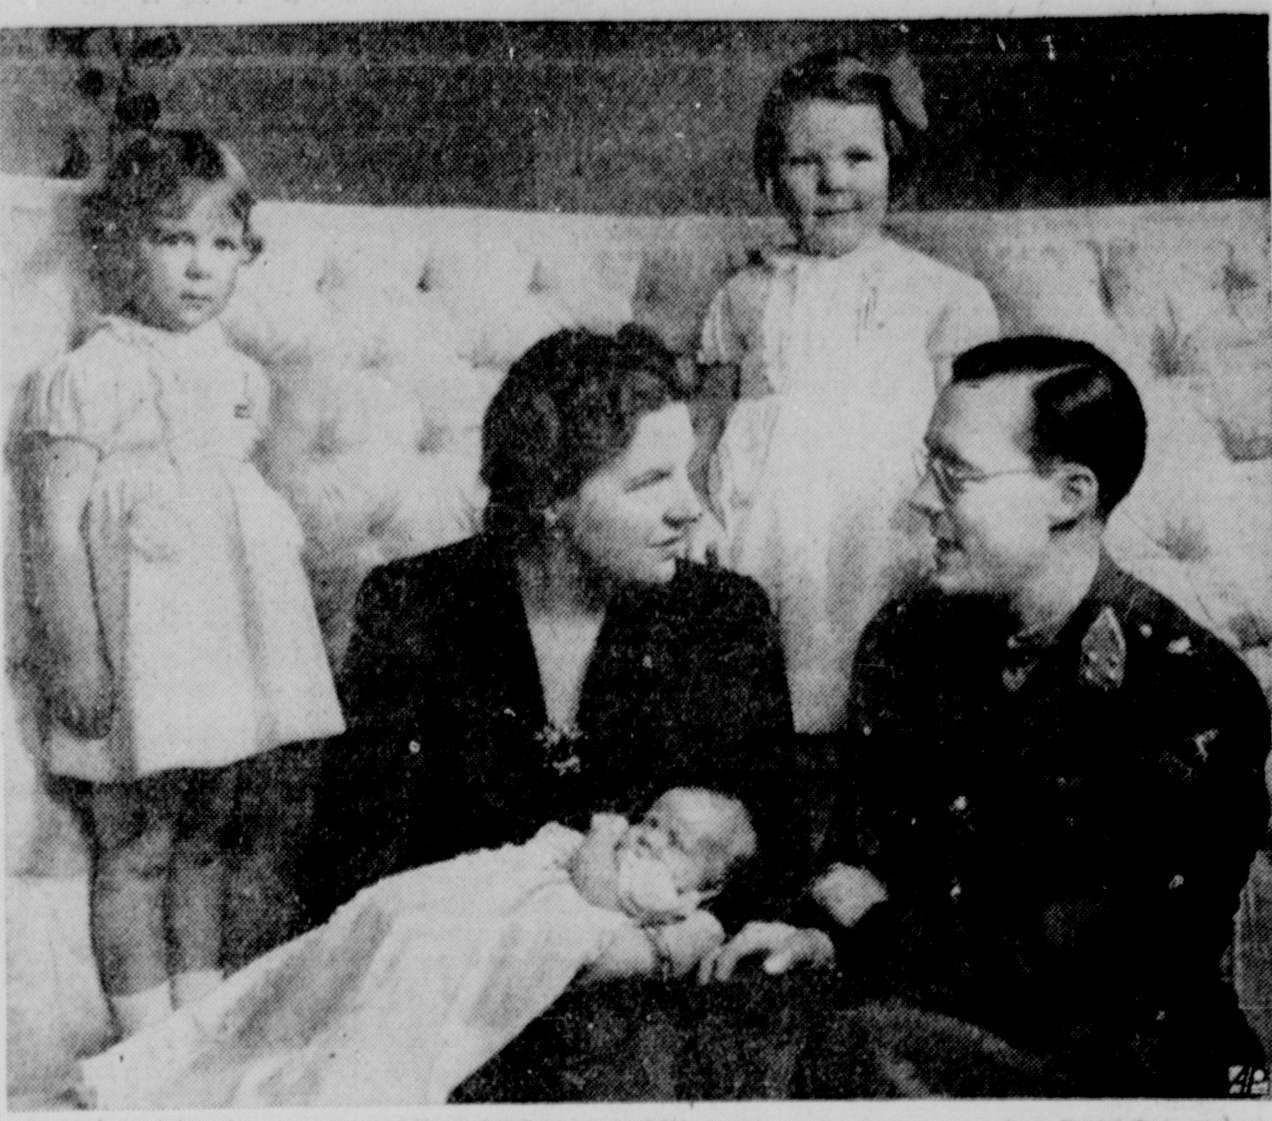

The change in Philadelphia was reported as less than 0.5 per cent.

Sales were not adjusted for seasonal or price fluctuations, the department said. The survey was based on reports by 1,753 stores.

MONTH'S SALES $1,087

G. M. Neely, postmaster at Fairfield, reports that during February a total of $937 in war bonds and $150.60 in war stamps were sold at his office.

York Woman, 19, Held For Murder

York, Pa., March 1 (AP)—Charges of first degree murder and manslaughter have been filed against Mrs. Inez R. Smith, 19, District Attorney W. Burg Anstine said, in connection with the death of August M. Abrecht, 63, on a street here Saturday night.

A post-mortem disclosed Abrecht

Five Fliers Are Killed In Crash

San Antonio, Tex., March 1 (AP)—Cadet John Barnhart, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binger, Johnstown, Pa., was killed yesterday with two other aviation cadets and two officers when their navigation training plane crashed, the Army public relations office announced.

The crash occurred 30 miles south of Shreveport, La., while the twin engine training plane was on a routine navigation instruction flight.

Surf-board riding is a sport of the natives in some of the Solomon Islands and in Hawaii, but is little known elsewhere in the Pacific.

NAZI SUB BASE BOMBED BY RAF

London, March 1 (AP)—Royal Air Force bombers smashed "very heavily" at the submarine base at St. Nazaire, France, and attacked targets in western Germany last night, it was announced officially today.

Five bombers were missing from the raid, which carried through the fourth night the non-stop Allied aerial offensive against Germany and the Axis-occupied continental countries.

Yesterday British whirlwinds attacked the German airdrome at Maupertus near Cherbourg, while swift Mosquitoes bombed factories at Hengelo in Holland and near Liege in Belgium—all without the loss of a plane.

U. S. Generals In Raid

Last night's raid brought to 33 the number of attacks on western Europe carried out by British-based Allied bombers in February, and well-placed observers estimated that the total amount of explosives they had loosed probably exceeded 10,000 tons.

American airmen have played an increasing role in the Allied aerial offensive, U. S. Flying Fortresses and Liberators having struck at Europe five times during February at a cost of 20 bombers.

It was disclosed yesterday that two brigadier generals, H. S. Hansell, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas, and Frank A. Armstrong of Asheville, North Carolina, had participated in the latest U. S. bombing mission in which tons of bombs were dumped on the German Naval base at Brest Saturday.

Private Johnny Finds a Friend

1. Just a boy going to war—your boy it might have been. So young; so gallant when he left, grinning his good-byes to cover up that sinking feeling deep down under the youthful poise:
2. That boy; let's call him Johnny; found a new world to fit himself into—a tough world of drill and orders and conformity. Too inexperienced to understand, his morale went down. Then he found a friend who won his confidence and taught him how to meet the problems of the Service:
3. So Johnny went to war. One day he found himself in a shellhole with a bullet in his arm—finished, he thought. But when, days afterward, they told him what had happened and how plasma and courage had pulled him through—minus an arm; Johnny grinned gratefully: "That old Red Cross," he said; "still pulling for me!"
4. New problems then for Johnny. How was a man to get along and get married maybe, with one arm gone?
5. So it's no wonder Johnny says that the best friend he made in the Army was not one person at all—but a group that extended all the way from training camp to battlefield and back home again:

The Red Cross serves our armed forces wherever they are; with an ever-growing staff of devoted men and women, who understand the needs of fighting men in heart and mind and body.

The Second Red Cross War Fund is greater than the first, but no greater than the increased needs. Your chapter needs your help. Give double this year if you can.

Subs Sink Ships During February

(By The Associated Press)

Sinkings of six cargo ships by Axis submarines in the western Atlantic were disclosed in February, marking the lowest monthly total of announced losses in enemy action in those waters since Pearl Harbor.

It was announced last week that 850 persons lost their lives in the sinkings by U-boats of two United States vessels. These sinkings brought to 616 the Associated Press tabulation of Allied and neutral nations cargo ships announced as sunk in western Atlantic attacks since December 7, 1941.

Seeks Repeal Of Federal Use Tax

Washington, March 1 (AP)—A bill (HR-2010) to repeal the $5 federal use tax on automobiles and boats has been introduced in the House by Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R-Pa.), who charges the tax is a burden on transportation.

Pointing out that a "great percentage" of the 27,000,000 automobiles in operation in the country are "used only in essential driving for occupational purposes," he told the House that the tax serves "no useful purpose, but is in reality acting as a detriment in collecting gasoline and other taxes that follow the operation of motor vehicles."
